BDO announce as finalist for The Private Equity Awards 2017

BDO has been shortlisted for the awards ‘European Corporate Finance House of the Year’ and ‘UK Corporate Finance House of the Year’ at the Private Equity Awards 2017.

The finalists were selected for meeting key criteria’s, including advisory services and deal activity in 2016.

Steffen Eube, Partner and Head of Global Corporate Finance, comments: “We help management teams, private equity houses and businesses to find alignment. We do this through the talented people from across our huge global corporate finance network, and put the success of our clients at the heart of everything we do. We deliver down to earth, pragmatic, highly skilled and top quality advice. We are delighted BDO has been shortlisted and recognised in the European private equity community, which wouldn’t have been achievable without the commitment and hard work from our teams.”

The winners will be announced at the gala dinner on 19 April, hosted by Real Deals.
